In the Matter of		) ) Case	No.
	VS.	)
To Attorney	, :	)
		)

This proceeding is being conducted under the provisions of Business and Professions Code section 6200-6206. PLEASE BE ADVISED that if (1) the client in this matter is awarded a refund of previously paid fees and/or costs; or (2) you and the client reach a mediated agreement which includes a refund of previously paid fees or costs and you do not comply with that mediated agreement, the State Bar of California may place you on temporary inactive status until the refund is paid.

Accordingly, if you believe that you would not be personally responsible for any refund of fees and/or cost to the client, you must notify this program in writing of the name and address of the person(s) responsible within fifteen (15) days of the date this notice was mailed. Failure to do so may result in your being held personally responsible for any such refund and subject to the enforcement provisions of Business and Professions Code section 6203(d).

Any person designated by you as the responsible attorney will be added as a party to the proceeding. If there is a dispute over responsibility for the fees and/or costs and the matter is resolved through arbitration, the arbitrator(s) will determine responsibility based on the evidence presented. If this matter is resolved through
