2. The speaker was Stephanie Hansel, CEO of the Sutter County Superior Court and the topic was Electronic Filing, with an emphasis on how to properly submit proposed orders. Two supervisors, Rhonda Tate and Chris Dagnino, were present also. After a short presentation, many questions were asked and answered. Phone calls and emails to supervisors and/or to the Sutter County e-file email: EFile@suttercourts.com are encouraged to resolve problems. Sutter County Superior Court has scheduled a more in-depth informational session about this topic on July 13, 2018, from noon to 1:00 in the Jury Assembly Room.

Stephanie Hansel has been the Court Executive Officer of the Sutter County Superior Court for two years. Beginning July 1, 2017, Electronic Filing became mandatory for attorneys filing papers in Civil cases, Probate cases and Family Law cases. Beginning March 1, 2018, Electronic Filing became available (not mandatory) in criminal cases.
